Photo Contests

Lisa Lee earned an Honorable Mention in the Animals category at the Jewish Center's photo contest.

The Wooster Camera Club's Photo Contest is accepting submissions online until May 15.

The Wilderness Center Nature Photo Club's annual Photofest contest is underway, with publicity either already sent out or scheduled. Volunteers are still needed for take-in Sunday, April 9 and Saturday, April 15; setup Friday, April 21; staffing the show Saturday and Sunday April 22-23; and tear-down Wednesday, April 26.

Business

Rick Mullins moved that we renew the club's certificate of deposit (CD) when it comes due this summer, seconded by Lisa Lee. Motion passed.

Lisa Lee reported that reservations have been made for the back room at The Amish Door for our December meeting.

Rita Boyd reported that Jim Roetzel has been invited to critique member photos at the June meeting. Members can bring 3-5 photos from which Jim will select which ones to comment on.

The photo topic was Architecture in Nature. The winner was Bryan Leaman with a black and white image of a hornets' nest.

Many thanks to Lisa Lee and Mattie Mathes for providing refreshments.

Program

The program was an instructional video about shooting waterfalls by Kevin Adams.

Meeting adjourned at 11:43 a.m. The next meeting will be March 25, with Bruce Stambaugh presenting. The photo topic is Sunrise or Sunset.

Respectfully submitted,
Bryan Leaman, Secretary
