Business

Rich Patrick reported that he found a new, local printer for the club's 2018 calendar. The cost would be between $8-$9 with a minimum initial order of 25 calendars. A vote was taken to determine whether to get stapled or spiral-bound. Stapled was selected.

Rob Shores moved that the price be set at $10 for the 2018 calendar; Beth Patrick seconded. Motion passed.

Rich also reported that it's time to renew the club's website/domain services.

Jenny Lambert moved that we renew the website/domain services at the current cost; Lisa Lee seconded. Motion passed.

Photo contests

Creative Artists Network and Atwood (Oct. 5 deadline) photo contests were highlighted.

Jenny Lambert won an award in the Stark County Library Lake Branch photo contest in the Scenic and Still Life category.

Lisa Lee had a bird photo selected as a weekly winner.

Marla Neiss took 2nd place at the Wayne County Fair in the Color Photography, Birds, category.

Randy Starner took 2nd place at the Walnut Hills Creativity is Timeless exhibit in the photography category.

Rich reported that used camera equipment can be listed on the club website. The listing will be information only (no photos) with the seller's phone number. He encouraged sellers to consider donating to the club if the listing helped them sell.

Refreshments were provided by Bryan Leaman (with many thanks to Beth Patrick and others for assistance setting up and cleaning up).
