

The Wilderness Center Nature Photo Club

The January 22, 2022, meeting was called to order at 9:35 by vice-president Dan Lux. There were 22 in attendance including 1 guest and a new member.

Dan thanked Suzie Lux for the refreshments. Dan and Suzie put up their display on the club's bulleting board.

Next month's presentation will be about the covered bridges of Ohio, by Jack Perry. The photo topic is "shapes."

The Huston-Brumbaugh photo contest is accepting entries until February 22.

Several members received awards at the Tuscarawas County Amateur Photography Association (now called Focus Point) and the Tuscarawas County Center for the Arts photography contest, including Michelle Wittensoldner, Dan Lux, Suzie Lux, Thom Baker, Mark Archibald and Levi Keim.

Minutes of the November 20, 2021, meeting were approved with corrections.

Beth Patrick presented the treasurer's report, which was approved.

Checking Account	3,583.07
Certificate of Deposit	2,292.78
Petty Cash	30.00

Total	5,905.85

Beth then announced the current checking account balance as 803.78 after the club's purchase of a new 80" high definition TV, mounting hardware, cables and installation fees. Rich Patrick provided details of those costs. Installation costs are expected to be reimbursed to the club from The Wilderness Center.

Lora Davis presented the new display hardware to be used for the next FotoFest, pending approval of The Wilderness Center for its installation.

Photo topic

Bryan Leaman's photo of a shepherd-mix was selected for the category of "Pets."

Program

Paul Keske, Dan Lux and others provided several stations around the room to for the macro photography workshop. They provided a great variety of scenes with artificial and natural light options.

Next meeting

The next meeting will be Jack Perry's presentation on the Covered Bridges of Ohio, February 26, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
Bryan Leaman, Secretary