Upcoming Photo Contests: The Huston Brumbaugh deadline is February 19th.

Old Business: Shirley Weyrauch, Rich Patrick, Dan Lux, and Jack Perry met with Maureen Kampman about Foto Fest. It will be held in conjunction with Nature Fest again on June 1-2.

New Business: Terry Barnhill is presenting a workshop on “How to Win Photo Contests” at the Tuscarawas County Center for the Arts on February 3 from 9:00-11:30AM. Registration is $20.

Rich Patrick suggested we look for a new location that does breakfast for our December meeting. He also said the club used to do a potluck and that we should consider that an option as well.

Bryan Lehman made the recommendation that we plan to purchase a new laptop in the near future. The current one is difficult to update now.

Thank you to George and Ahn Burrows for providing refreshments.

Next month's presentation will be “Camera Basics” by Dan Lux and Rich Patrick. The Shooting Topic will be Storytelling. Refreshments will be provided by Cathy Fenstermaker and bulletin board will be Jen Case.

Program: The program was a video by David duChemin called “The Heart of the Photograph”.

Next meeting

Meeting adjourned at 11:31 a.m. The next meeting will be February 24.

Respectfully submitted,
Lora Davis, Secretary
